Interpretation.

“account” means a deposit account, savings account or current account by whatever name called;

“abandoned property” means assets that appear to have been forsaken by their owner by virtue of no generated activity and to which it is presumed the owner has relinquished his or her interest to the property without vesting such interest in another person or entity;

“agent” means a person who is either the attorney-in-fact for the living owner, or the court appointed guardian, custodian, conservator or fiduciary of the living owner, or a Trust that is registered for and on behalf of an owner or a beneficiary, or the court-appointed bankruptcy trustee for the living owner, or the custodial parent of the living owner of the asset being claimed, who is a minor;

“certificate” means proof of ownership, physical or electronic, of property;

“certified copy” means a copy of a document certified by a Commissioner for Oaths, notary public, magistrate or judge to be a true copy of the original document;

“claimant” means a person who claims ownership of an unclaimed financial asset;

“document” means accounts, deeds, letters, writings, books and any other record of information, however compiled, recorded or stored and whether in electronic, written or printed form, on microfilm or in any other form;

“record” means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form;

“safe deposit box” means a secure container, lockable box, locker, safe, vault or drawer maintained by a holder on behalf of an owner for the purpose of retaining personal assets of the owner and may include sealed parcels and envelopes; and “valuer” means a registered valuer under the Valuers Act and, unless otherwise stated, words and expressions contained in the Act shall have the same meaning in these Regulations.

Cap. 532

PART II—REPORTS AND TRANSFER OF ASSETS

3. In accordance with section 9 of the Act, the following unclaimed monies held or owing by utilities shall be deemed abandoned property—

Deposit for utility services

- (a) any deposit made by the consumer or subscriber with such a utility to secure the payment for utility services furnished by such utility, or the amount of such deposit after deducting any sums due to such utility by such consumer or subscriber, which shall have remained unclaimed by the person entitled thereto for two years after the termination of the utility services to secure the payment of which such deposit was made;
- (b) any amount paid in advance by the consumer or subscriber to such a utility in anticipation of the supply of a utility service; which the utility defaults in supplying, which shall remain unclaimed for two years;
- (c) any amount which is the balance of money paid in advance for a utility service to a utility part of which is supplied by the utility; which shall remain unclaimed by the owner for two years; and
- (d) the amount of any refund of excess or increased rates or charges collected by any such utility for utility services lawfully furnished by such utility which has been or shall hereafter lawfully be ordered refunded to the consumer or other person entitled thereto, which shall have remained unclaimed by the person entitled thereto for two years from the date it became payable in accordance with the final determination or order providing for such refund.

4. (1) Where an asset is evidenced by a share certificate, a holder of the asset shall deliver a certificate to the Authority as set out in the Eleventh Schedule.
